APPELLANT HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC.'S STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL AND DESIGNATION
OF ITEMS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL

Honeywell International Inc. ("Honeywell"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits, pursuant to Rule 8009 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, its statement of issues to be presented on appeal and designation of items to be included in the record on appeal with respect to the (i) Order dated November 8, 2016 (the "Order"),<sup>1</sup> (ii) Opinion dated November 8, 2016 (the "Opinion"),<sup>2</sup> (iii) Correcting Order dated December 1, 2016 (the "Correcting Order"),<sup>3</sup> and (iv) all other adverse orders, rulings, decrees, opinions, and/or judgments entered, leading up to, merged into, or included within the Order, Opinion, or Correcting Order, each as entered in the above-captioned bankruptcy cases by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court"):

ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

Honeywell states the following issues on appeal:

1. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in holding that In re Motions for Access of Garlock Sealing Techs. LLC, 488 B.R. 281 (D. Del. 2013), "binds" the Bankruptcy Court to impose restrictions on Honeywell's access to, retention, and use of those certain exhibits that were to be filed off of the electronic docket with the Clerk of the Court in the above-captioned cases (the "Rule 2019 Exhibits"), notwithstanding that Honeywell was not a party to that prior decision, the restrictions imposed in that prior decision were specifically and explicitly agreed to by the party seeking access, and the Bankruptcy Court's recognition that "in other and different cases, Bankruptcy Code Section 107 provides unlimited public access to papers filed in a bankruptcy case”?

2. Having found that the Rule 2019 Exhibits constitute “papers filed in a case under [the Bankruptcy Code],” did the Bankruptcy Court err in imposing restrictions on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits, thereby violating Honeywell’s statutory rights of access to papers filed with bankruptcy courts under 11 U.S.C. § 107?
3. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in failing to consider whether the restrictions imposed by the Bankruptcy Court on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits violate Honeywell’s common law rights of access to judicial records?
4. Do the restrictions imposed by the Bankruptcy Court on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits violate Honeywell’s common law rights of access to such records?
5. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in failing to consider whether the restrictions imposed by the Bankruptcy Court on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits violate Honeywell’s constitutional rights under the First Amendment?
6. Do the restrictions imposed by the Bankruptcy Court on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits violate Honeywell’s constitutional rights under the First Amendment?
7. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in imposing restrictions on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits without any evidentiary showing, findings, or conclusions regarding whether the standards provided by 11 U.S.C. § 107(b) or (c) or the common law had been met so as to justify restricting public access to the Rule 2019 Exhibits?
8. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in imposing restrictions on Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits without any evidentiary showing, findings, or conclusions regarding the existence of a compelling governmental interest or that the restrictions were narrowly tailored to that interest, as required by the First Amendment?
9. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in determining that Honeywell’s “purpose” for seeking access to the Rule 2019 Exhibits is a relevant or required consideration under 11 U.S.C. § 107, the common law, or the First Amendment?
10. To the extent purpose is a relevant or required consideration, did the Bankruptcy Court err in denying Honeywell unrestricted access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits on the basis of its stated purposes?
11. To the extent purpose is a relevant or required consideration, did the Bankruptcy Court err in finding lobbying to be an improper purpose, and in prohibiting use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits for any lobbying purposes, given that the First Amendment protects “the right of the people peaceably to . . . petition the government for a redress of grievances”?

12. To the extent the Bankruptcy Court did not err in denying Honeywell unrestricted access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits, did the Bankruptcy Court err in imposing the particular restrictions it did upon Honeywell’s access to, retention, and use of the Rule 2019 Exhibits, including, without limitation, by (i) prohibiting Honeywell from using the Rule 2019 Exhibits “for ‘lobbying efforts,’” for investigating fraud outside “the claims process,” from sharing the information with anyone other than the NARCO Trust, from sharing the information except “in an aggregate format,” and from “shar[ing] the identity of individuals by name or other identifying means;” (ii) requiring Honeywell to pay for certain expenses associated with redaction of the Rule 2019 Exhibits, and (iii) limiting Honeywell’s retention of the Rule 2019 Exhibits to a term of three months?
13. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in requiring that the facilitator make “adjustments” to the 2019 Exhibits, given that this process was previously completed by the special discovery master appointed by this Court to complete the redaction process for the 2019 Exhibits?

ITEMS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL

Honeywell designates the following items to be included in the record on appeal, consisting of entries on the dockets in the above-captioned cases relevant to the issues on appeal including, without limitation, orders, rulings, decrees, opinions, and judgments, as well as all related pleadings, materials submitted in support of those pleadings, and hearing transcripts.
